Oil Strike Threatens Gasoline Shortages

DENVER (AP)—The continuing strike of 22 AFL, independent and CIO oil workers' unions today threatened further shortages of gasoline for the nation's motorists, trucks and air transport.

So far, the three-day-old strike of refinery and pipeline workers for a wage increase has brought voluntary rationing of gasoline to motorists in Boston; filling station pumps are running dry in the Chicago-Gary area; pickets halted gasoline deliveries to stations in Toledo.

Government officials said a prolonged strike would bring on a major shortage of gasoline if the 45-day supply on hand is cut in half.

The Petroleum Administration for Defense ordered deliveries of some petroleum products prohibited to dealers or big consumers with more than 10 days' supply available in 17 eastern states.

Export of some major petroleum products was banned. Shipments from Pacific coast states, shipments to Canada and aviation gasoline were exempted.

The president of the American Truck Associations, Walter F. Mul-lady, said if highway freight transport is immobilized by a lack of fuel, "the supports could be knocked under from our whole standard of living."

He said the milk supply for 69 million people in the nation's 15 largest cities would be shut off.

Secretary of the Interior Chapman said the already short supply of aviation gasoline production could be cut by about 30 per cent. An order limiting use of aviation gasoline can be expected, he said.

The first violence was reported last night at the American Liberty Refinery at Mt. Pleasant, Tex. A gasoline transport truck driver suffered a broken nose and head bruises when pulled from his truck by pickets. An injunction was being sought today by the company to prevent interference with its refinery traffic.

Negotiations to settle the strike, which began at midnight Tuesday, were breaking down where they had appeared most promising.

California may be caught up in the strike after negotiations in San Francisco between representatives of the Oil Workers International Union of Denver and Shell Oil reached a stalemate.

The unions are seeking a pay hike of 25 cents hourly and increased night shift differentials. In Ohio the CIO oil workers struck another Toledo refinery today, shutting down the Pure Oil Co. installation.

Already struck by the union were the Gulf Oil Co. refinery, the Detroit Southern Pipe Line Co., the plant of the Fiske Brothers Refining Co. and the bulk distributing plants of Sinclair Oil Co., Cities Service Corp. and Socony-Vacuum Co.

Still going were Standard Oil Co. of Ohio refineries and plants in Toledo and Cleveland.

Legion Post Resumes Keno

Crowds Flock To Lake Placencia

You walk right in, pay your money, receive a card and sit down. Presently, a man on a platform starts calling out numbers and you attempt to cover the figures on your card with little round pieces of rubber.

If you cover the numbers first, you win a prize (cash usually). The game is called Keno and it's flourishing again—after a six-week shutdown while the "heat" was on—at the George D. Worth American Legion Post 574 at Lake Placencia.

Attendance at the game, which re-opened last night, was not great but, as one of the Legionnaires was heard to remark, "What do you expect for the first night?" The crowds tonight and Saturday will be more like old times, he opined.

Bus Runs From Canton
Approximately 125 persons were seated in the huge room which can possibly accommodate four times that number. About 40 cars and a Cardinal Bus Line bus from Canton were parked in the lot.

In the past it was not unusual to see 150 cars and four chartered buses parked in the lot while 400 to 500 players were inside.

The initial attempt on the part of authorities to close the game occurred Feb. 29 when Constable Earl Stewart of Knox Township and Homeworth Justice of the Peace Russell E. Iden raided the post. Harley Thomas, 34, of Westville, an agent for the establishment, was cited for exhibiting gambling devices and permitting gambling.

Ignored By Grand Jury

During a preliminary hearing before Iden, Thomas' attorney requested a jury trial and the case was referred to the Common Pleas Court. The Columbiana County Grand Jury, on April 11, ignored the charges against Thomas.

So Keno is back again.

Recently, the Executive Committee of the Ohio Department of the American Legion issued an order forbidding any Legion post from permitting gambling on its premises. The order intimated that the charters of posts violating the law would be revoked.

An official of the state Public Utilities Commission also warned bus companies to cease transporting players to Bingo or Keno establishments.

Steel Strike Ended; Fight Brought To Supreme Court

All 50 Aboard Airliner Down In Brazil Dead

Rescue Attempt Ended By Air Force With No Bodies Recovered

BELEM, Brazil (AP)—Aerial rescue teams reported last night a luxurious Pan American airliner apparently was burning even before it crashed Tuesday in dense Brazilian jungle. Their leaders wrote off as dead all 50 persons the plane carried.

Maj. Richard Olney ordered his U.S. Air Force rescue unit from Puerto Rico to end its mission without parachuting to the site or trying to recover bodies because it would endanger the lives of the rescuers.

A Brazilian Air Force Catalina—a flying-boat patrol plane—planned, however, to land Brazilian medical rescue corpsmen on a river about 40 miles from the scene today in the hope they could hack through the nearly impenetrable growths.

The airliner's crew of nine and 10 of the 41 passengers were Americans.

The airliner—making one of Pan American World Airways "El Presidente" trips from South America—took off from Rio de Janeiro shortly after dark Monday for a 12-hour night flight to Port of Spain, Trinidad. Its only remaining stop before New York.

The plane reported by radio that all was well as it passed west of Barreiras, a mid-Brazilian town, shortly after midnight. The wreckage was discovered less than an hour's flight beyond the position given in its final report.

Observers with powerful glasses circled the wreckage at low altitude and offered the opinion the plane—named the Clipper Good Hope—had exploded at low altitude.

Parts of the motors of the four-engine Stratocruiser—a double-decked passenger development from the B-29 bomber—were scattered a quarter of a mile apart. Charred chunks of wreckage were strewn for half a mile over both sides of a ridge.

Director Of Nurses Named At Hospital

Mrs. Ruth E. Aubrey, former director of nurses at Youngstown's North and Southside Hospitals, today was appointed director of nurses at Salem City Hospital.

Mrs. Aubrey, a registered nurse, succeeds Miss Hester Willis, who resigned a month ago.

C. J. Mosher, Jr., City Hospital administrator, who announced the appointment, said the new nurse supervisor, served the Youngstown hospitals for seven years, returning in 1950 to enter Red Cross work and serve as an instructor.

Mrs. Aubrey, who will assume her duties here May 15, received her bachelor's degree in nursing education from Columbia University. She was a member of the Ohio State Nurses Board from 1946 to 1951 and has been a member of the board of trustees, District No. 3 of the Ohio State Nurses Association for 12 years.

Salem City Hospital is now staffed by 32 registered nurses, 37 student nurses and 28 nurses aides.

A-BLAST—Rising several thousand feet in the air, the mushroom cloud from the latest atomic bomb tests in Yucca Flat, Nev., swirls upward. Marine combat veterans were only 7000 yards from "Ground Zero," the spot immediately beneath the blast. Seconds after the detonation, the 2000 Marines attacked their theoretical objective near "Ground Zero."

2,000 Marines Shaken Up By Atomic Blast

CAMP DESERT ROCK, Nev. (AP)—More than 2,000 Marines have taken the roughest buffeting ever dished out to troops by an atomic bomb, but the majority seems sold on the bomb as a friend in the field.

The fiery low-level burst on Yucca Flat yesterday decimated much of their equipment within 900 yards of ground zero, but the two picked combat battalions came charging out of their foxholes on signal from their maneuver commander, Brig. Gen. Joseph C. Burger of Camp Pendleton, Calif.

While high ground radiation kept troops from moving to ground zero, Gen. Burger said that "in a battle-field situation we would have had no fear of going through."

The advance was halted within 500 yards of the target, which was surrounded with burning planes, trucks and smashed machineguns—showing graphically what would have happened to the enemy.

One M-7 tank was blown 80 feet and flipped on its back, Gen. Burger said.

But he pointed out to his men that dummies placed in close-up foxholes received very slight damage, whereas dummies placed up-right above ground farther back were completely destroyed.

Staff Sgt. Edward L. Speck, 34, Tuckerton, N.J., said he saw stand-up dummies blown 150 yards and burned to a crisp a half mile from the target.

He added: "I think it would be a good idea to try a few of these bombs in Korea."

Cpl. Robert H. Brown, Garden City, N.Y., said the ground in his foxhole "felt like a sponge" when the shock hit.

State Relaxes Freeze On Natural Gas Heating Units

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio fuel gas distributors today won their fight to serve more heating customers. The State Utilities Commission authorized them to take on 40,000 new accounts.

The order, issued after a public hearing, thaws out a freeze of new or conversion gas units that held throughout last winter for all distributors except East Ohio Gas Co. in northern Ohio and a few small firms.

Natural fuel gas has been a red-hot issue in Ohio since the frigid winter of 1951-52. Subzero temperatures for a considerable period caused extreme shortages in some communities, notably Toledo.

Some areas, not hit so hard that winter, have fought persistently against the freeze. These cities were joined by makers of heating equipment and contractors who wanted to install gas heating equipment to help sell their new houses.

But, the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., a subsidiary of Columbia Gas System, Inc., and Ohio's largest retail

5 Candidates Take Stage In Cincinnati

Women Voters League Sponsors Show; Top Contenders Absent

CINCINNATI (AP)—The League of Women Voters looked over five candidates and a stand-in last night, but there was a strong suspicion among its members today that the next president wasn't there.

Two Republicans and three Democrats presented in an hour's radio-television program their views on the major issues of government corruption and foreign economic aid.

They answered some other questions. All of the queries and replies were prepared in advance, so nobody was surprised by what happened except where spontaneous applause broke out from the audience of 2,500, mostly women.

The candidates who sounded off on schedule were Gov. Earl Warren of California and former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, Republicans, and Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, and W. Averell Harriman of New York, Democrats.

The major missing candidates were Ohio's Sen. Robert A. Taft and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Gen. Eisenhower was represented by Paul G. Hoffman, former economic administrator. Taft had no representative in the meeting which was held in Taft auditorium, a hall named for his father, former President William Howard Taft.

Hoffman got a good hand, possibly the best of the evening, when he was introduced as reflecting the views of Eisenhower but not tagging any statements he made as being those of the general. Hoffman said he hadn't talked to Eisenhower in advance, but knew the general's views.

With Eisenhower and Taft personally missing from the Republican side and such Democrats as Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, vice president Alben Barkley and Sen. Brian McMahon of Connecticut not invited, some women delegates told a reporter they thought they may not have seen the July nominees or the final winner.

Harriman, who has the "favorite son" support of the hefty New York Democratic delegation, came up with the newest suggestion: Creation by Congress of an "inspector general" who would have broad powers, including the delivery into income tax returns, to ferret out corruption in Washington.

Hoffman said he believes U.S. money spent in Europe may give greater defense returns than those paid out at home.

Warren said the answer to the national scandals is to elect a Republican in November.

Kefauver said something ought to be done to "stop unfounded character assassinations," adding that "destroying good people's names by innuendo is certainly keeping a lot of good people out of the government."

GOVERNMENT ATTORNEYS FIGHT STEEL DECISION—Fighting against Judge David S. Pine's ruling that President Truman's seizure of the steel industry was unconstitutional, government attorneys obtained a stay which preserves the seizure for an indefinite period. Ike Pulls Ahead Of Taft In GOP Convention Delegates

(Associated Press)

Democrats and Republicans had fresh sparks flying from each of their hottest rivalries today.

The Taft-Eisenhower duel for GOP presidential-nominating delegates switched leads, with a boost from Truman's home state of Missouri. In deep-south Florida, the Kefauver-Russell race was taking on a ruddier glow.

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower picked up eight new delegates in Republican district conventions in Missouri. This put the general, for the first time, ahead of Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio in the Associated Press tabulation of pre-convention delegate strength.

The delegate score—compiled from concessions, pledges, instructions and avowed leanings—gives Eisenhower 278 to 274 for Taft. The Ohioan's headquarters claims 344 for Taft, 268 for Eisenhower, not counting Missouri.

Florida Gov. Fuller Warren has agreed to meet Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee in debate Monday night at Miami. Kefauver has swapped words with the governor ever since his Senate Crime Committee trial in vain to call Warren as a witness.

Taft told a reporter in Akron he "would not turn down an invitation" to debate with Eisenhower, returning about June 1 from his Allied defense command in Europe. Taft added, however he feels debates are more appropriate to general elections than to primaries.

In Salem, Oregon, Gov. Douglas McKay, an Eisenhower man, said Taft backers are trying to pull a "political trick." He said they put up eight candidates for the state's 18 GOP delegate posts without naming the nominee-candidate they support. Oregon delegates traditionally are bound by results of the primary.

Indiana Republicans formally approved advancing the state nominating convention from July 3 to June 7, just six days after Eisenhower is expected back. The move was interpreted as a victory for Taft backers.

Reds Damage 2 Destroyers

Maddox, Laffey Hit By Shore Batteries

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Two American destroyers were damaged slightly by Communist shore batteries in a gun duel that raged all Wednesday afternoon in besieged Wonsan harbor on Korea's east coast, the Navy announced today.

The Navy said it was the longest ship-to-shore artillery duel of the Korean war.

The Navy did not say whether there were any casualties.

Guns on the destroyer Maddox were splashed by spray from 125 near misses. Several shrapnel holes were found on the ship.

The destroyer Laffey, which moved in to support the Maddox, reported 170 rounds of Red gunfire hit near the ship.

The Maddox and Laffey together fired 730 rounds at the shore guns. The North Korean radio at Pyongyang said shore batteries at Kosong on the east coast damaged a United Nations destroyer Thursday.

The Air Force reported 22 U. S. Sabre jets jumped four Communist MIG-15s today and probably destroyed one Red jet.

39 Alarms Answered By Firemen In April

Firemen answered 39 alarms during April, 31 caused by grass fires, Fire Chief Clarence W. Wright's monthly report reveals.

Of the remaining runs, one was caused by a false alarm; one, scare fire; one, dwelling fire; two, car fires and three, blazes in mercantile buildings. Total property loss during the month was estimated at approximately $500.

Truman Calls Union, Industry For Meeting

Bewildered Workers Expected To Return To Factories Today

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The steel strike was called off today with dramatic suddenness. Philip Murray bowed to President Truman's wishes for the third time in the great steel-wage dispute.

Murray, president of the CIO and the striking CIO United Steelworkers, messaged Truman:

"I have urged the members of the United Steelworkers to return to work as soon as possible in the plants involved in our dispute with the steel industry."

In quick response picket lines were disbanded as the order filtered down.

Twice before Murray postponed the strike's deadline as the personal request of the President.

The gray-haired labor leader left immediately for Washington to take part in a three way White House conference between Truman, Murray and the presidents of six large steel companies.

Murray expressed confidence the men will be quick to resume production of steel vitally needed for defense and essential civilian users. First predictions were that the industry could be back at a near-normal level by Sunday night.

While Murray was talking to newsmen at his office door, a battery of union aides was telephoning "go back to work" instructions to strikers across the nation.

Both the government and the steel industry appealed to the Supreme Court today to rule on whether President Truman had constitutional power to seize the steel mills.

In successive moves: 1. The industry petitioned the highest tribunal to (A) Uphold U.S. District Judge David A. Pine's decision that the seizure was illegal, and (B) Bar the government from raising wages of steelworkers pending a final supreme court decision.

2. The government asked the

Kiwanis Club Told Of Swim Pool Need

Two Salem High School students discussed the need for a swimming pool in the city at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday noon in the Memorial Building.

Bob Rea, a junior, spoke on the benefits derived from a pool and showed surveys of what other communities are accomplishing.

Sandy Hansell, a sophomore, pointed out advantages of indoor and outdoor pools, cited the approximate cost of both types and told of different methods to raise money.

He said Salem, for its size, is among the 20 wealthiest cities in the United States, having manufacturing plants that are known all over the world. The city also has a tax duplicate of $25 million and is estimated to have seven millionaires, he stated.

Salem is spending only 20 to 25 per cent of what it should on recreation, he said. He listed towns which have pools but are not nearly as rich as this city.

The community's playground program has even been discontinued, depriving Salem youngsters of necessary recreation. For how rich it is, the city is sorely deficient in recreational facilities, he concluded.

Gail Herron was program chairman.

Taft Stumps Through Ohio

Senator Says GOP Would Help Workers

AKRON (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft, hustling about Ohio as next Tuesday's primaries draw closer, says the Republicans can win American labor support in the presidential election.

Taft told an audience of 1,600 at Hower Trade School Auditorium last night he stands for driving out corruption that "brings with it waste, extravagance and high tax bills which cut into the workman's pay check and add to his cost of living."

The American workman, he said, stands to benefit by this philosophy of government "as much or more than anyone else."

Of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's bid for the Republican nomination, Taft said he didn't believe the GOP convention could "make an intelligent choice" unless it knows the candidates' views.

This 14th Congressional District is the only place in the state where Eisenhower could win a delegate from Taft. Judge Walter B. Wanamaker is running as a delegate pledged to rubber worker Kenneth Eisenhower, who has authorized the judge to cast his vote for the general. Judge Wanamaker picked Eisenhower's name from a telephone book because it is similar to the general's.

Taft also spoke at Hiram, Elyria and Medina yesterday. He is scheduled to speak today at Mansfield, Marion, Bowling Green and Toledo.

Another candidate for the GOP nomination, former Minnesota governor Harold E. Stassen, told students at Wilberforce University that both political parties realize the importance of civil rights and would support programs for it. Work of men like Dr. Ralph Bunche, United Nations mediator, will bring about peace and unity, Stassen said.

At Akron's 18th annual Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner, Congressman Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. declared a Republican victory in the general election would head the nation toward bankruptcy.

"If Republicans win this year, the greedy will get fatter, the poor will get poorer, the little farmer will be bought out by the great corporate farmer and we will be back on the road to bankruptcy," said the Democrat-Liberal from New York.

Methodists Study Cut In Overlapping

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A proposal to create two new commissions to strip away overlapping activities of half a dozen boards comes before the Methodist General Conference for debate today.

The proposal is contained in the third report of a committee seeking areas of agreement on the controversial survey on streamlining church structure. However, instead of cutting the number of boards in half and reducing personnel, as recommended in the survey, the compromise proposal sets up additional agencies.

Opponents of the survey report, who oppose any change in the structure of the church, were quick to point out when the compromise proposal was submitted last night: "The overall structure of existing boards remains exactly as it is."

A recommendation which would have cleared the way for integration of the central jurisdiction—Negro churches—into other jurisdictions of the church was found unconstitutional by the judicial council. The committee on conferences announced it will submit a draft for the constitutional amendment the judicial council ruled necessary. Such an amendment will have to be approved by a two-thirds majority of the general conference and of annual conferences.

Warren Man Gets $25,000 In Suit

CLEVELAND (AP)—A former Warren, O., telegrapher, sitting in a railroad dispatch shanty when it was struck by lightning Aug. 26, 1947, won a $25,000 lawsuit yesterday.

A federal grand jury awarded that amount to R. L. York, 30, against the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

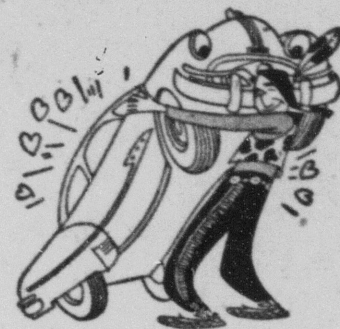

York's attorneys contended the B.&O. had not properly grounded the shack near Warren against lightning and that York's brain had been permanently damaged by the electrical shock.

The B.&O. argued the lightning was an act of God and that the ordinary precautions had been taken.

President Thomas Jefferson signed the bill on March 29, 1806, that provided for building of the National Road (Route 40).

Alliance Union Secedes From United Electric

ALLIANCE (AP)—A union local representing 560 production workers at the Alliance Manufacturing Co. has seceded from the independent United Electrical Workers.

Paul Burgess, president of the local, No. 705, said the break came because UE leaders at a recent district council meeting in Columbus refused to adopt an anti-Communist policy proposed by the Alliance local.

Two weeks ago the local voted to bar UE officials from meetings until they took oath declaring themselves not to be Communists.

Wednesday night three UE officials who tried to attend a local meeting were told they were "not welcome." The three were David Hirschberg, international representative from Cleveland; Laverne Slagle, area organizer from Massillon; and Frank Green, executive board member from Akron.

Some former UE members have formed a new local of the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers and have petitioned the national labor relations board for an election. Negotiations on a new contract have been postponed for 30 days.

Railroad Allowed Freight Rate Boost
COLUMBUS (AP)—The State Utilities Commission yesterday gave railroad rate increases on all freight except coal moved within Ohio. The increases range from three to six per cent.

The commission granted three per cent boosts on grain, grain products, and by-products, coke, sand, stone and iron ore. The increase was six per cent on all other products except coal.

The railroads sought the increases throughout the nation to pay for wage boosts granted recently. They asked a flat 15 per cent increase on all freight last year, but the Ohio Commission permitted only a nine per cent increase on some items.

The commission later gave a two per cent interim increase on coal hauling rates, but withdrew it after a hearing last fall.

Rieve Again Textile Chief

Big Union Settles Quarrel Of Factions

CLEVELAND (AP)—Emil Rieve began his seventh two-year term today as president of the Textile Workers Union amid evidence that a once-rumored break-up of the big CIO union would not develop.

Delegates representing the 400,000 members of the union elected Rieve and all 25 candidates he supported to office yesterday, rejecting a slate headed by George Baldanzi, who had been executive vice president of the union since it was founded in 1939.

Rieve got 1,223 votes to 720 for Baldanzi in winning the $16,000-a-year president's job. No other candidate on Baldanzi's slate hit 700 votes, and all the Rieve candidates piled up around 1,200 each.

Shortly after the results were announced, Rieve was asked if he would give Baldanzi an appointive job in the union. He replied that he would "give it serious consideration."

"Obviously there will be scars left for a long time" from this bitter dispute, Rieve said, "but they will heal." He said he didn't think there was "any danger of secession" on the part of the beaten faction.

Baldanzi wished the victorious candidates "every success" on the convention floor and said later he would have no part of any secession move. "I'm just a member of the union now," he declared.

Before the convention—which ends today—began on Monday, there were rumors that if the Baldanzi forces lost the election they would hold their own "rump" convention next week.

Baldanzi, 45, a persuasive orator, has clashed with the 59-year-old Rieve openly for nearly three years while serving in the union's second highest post, the $13,500-a-year executive vice presidency. Baldanzi said he wanted more democracy in the union, including election of some officers now appointive.

Aviation Officials Rap TV Towers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The aviation industry is lining up strongly against the prospective mushrooming of television towers across the nation.

The Air Transport Association, an organization of the major airlines, has asked the Federal Communications Commission to place a limit on the height of the towers now that it has lifted the freeze on new television stations.

Ultra-high frequency transmitters would require towers of 1,200 to 2,000 feet and the association does not want them that tall. The Air Line Pilots Association has notified the Civil Aeronautics Board that "erection of steel needles 1,000, 1,500 and 2,000 feet above the surface, within or immediately adjacent to airport control zones and airways, will seriously affect the safe and efficient operation of present and future air transportation."

Clarence N. Sayen, Chicago, president of the pilots association, said it would be much better to regulate tower construction now "than to have them moved or razed after it is proven, through air crashes, that they are unsafe."

Larry Cates, pilots association Washington representative, said in a statement that the lifting of the freeze and the resulting rush of TV station applications, is "one of the most serious hazards to air line operations this country has faced."

Legislators Favor Longer State Terms

AKRON (AP)—Longer terms for Ohio's governor, treasurer, secretary of state and attorney general is the aim of members of the state's General Assembly.

A majority now in the legislature think it's high time this change be made at once. Twenty-eight states have four-year terms for their top elective officials.

Ohio is the largest of the 48 states with two-year terms for these offices. Only the auditor of state is elected for four years here.

Eighty-eight House and Senate members prefer four-year terms, only 17 want no change and six refused to comment.

Members of the House of Representatives were 72 to 14 in favor of the change. Three did not answer. Senate members tallied 16 to 3 for four-year terms with three abstaining.

It would require a constitutional amendment to change the length of terms. This could be done by the legislature or by a constitutional convention.

Both Democrats and Republicans favor making this move at the next session of the General Assembly. Members of both parties said they will insist this be made a part of their respective party's campaign programs.

Many believe state representatives and senators also should be elected to four year terms.

Rep. John J. Lynch, Jr., Youngstown Democrat, said: "It takes so much time and money to be elected to a state office that the present two-year term is too short to justify running."

STUDY FIRST AID COURSE

LISBON — The Columbiana County Health Advisory Council recommended first aid courses for all bus drivers and teachers in the county rural school system at a meeting Wednesday night at the High school. The courses will probably be started this fall. V. J. Ullman of Lisbon, chairman, presided at the meeting.

Music Club To Give Program Sunday Observing Music Week

At 3 p. m. Sunday in the Methodist Church the Salem Music Study Club will present its program in observance of the 29th anniversary of National Music Week (May 4-11).

"Make Your Life More Musical," the keynote of the week, will be significant of the entertaining program planned by music week chairmen, Mrs. Vesta S. King, and Miss Helen Derfus.

The keynote relates both to self-expression through singing and playing to more active, appreciative listening. A secondary, or alternate keynote, of the Music Week observance from its inception in 1924 has been "Foster American Music."

This thought is being carried out by using the music of American composers of the city, state and region. During the Sunday program the audience will participate in singing, "Now the Day Is Over."

Mrs. Meredith Livingston, Music Study Club president, will welcome the audience. "Gavotte" and "Serenade" will be the organ prelude selections by Mrs. Loren Early.

Verdi's "La Donna e Mobile" and "The Sunshine of Your Smile" will be Darrell Askey's vocal numbers. Dorothy Pozmiko will be his accompanist.

John Litty, Robert Dunn and William Schuller comprise the cornet trio which will play "Three Solitaires," with Bruce Snyder as pianist. Mrs. Walter Hunston will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rhodes as they sing "Jalousie" and "Yours is My Heart Alone."

Accompanying Mrs. Robert Aikens as she sings "The Living God" and "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked" will be Mrs. Hunston at the organ. An organ-piano duet by Mrs. Hunston and Mrs. Homer Taylor will feature "Jesus bleibet meine Freude" by Bach and "Grand Aria."

Unofficial unanimous federation music festival award winners Jean and Barbara Cameron, Mr. Askey and Everett Crawford will sing "Now Let Every Tongue Adore," "Sledge Bells" and "Benediction." Miss Grace Ellenberger will be accompanist.

Miss Nancy Stamp, piano student at the Cleveland Institute of Music will play "Reflets dans l'eau," "Bryeres" and "Jardins sous la pluie" by Debussy.

In conclusion, Nancy Bailey, violinist, with Homer Taylor at the organ, will play "To Spring" and "Berceuse Slave."

Former Director Honored By Choir

Mrs. Raymond Silver, former director of the Presbyterian Chancel Choir, was honor guest at the family party and dinner meeting Thursday evening in the church. Miss Grace Ellenberger, present director, outlined plans for May and led in the worship service.

Sixty youngsters and their parents enjoyed the program arranged by Marilyn Schaeffer. Shirley Andrus was mistress of ceremonies.

Two piano solos opened the program. Mary Ann Howells played "The Prince Charming Waltz" and Diana Papaspiros entertained with "The American Patrol March." Sally Hutchison and Joanne Louis combined on clarinet duets. Janet Williams was accompanist.

Flowers and musical notes were the decorative motif on the table. Colorful welcoming booklets marked the places of the parents. The tables were attractively appointed with spring flowers and choir figures in miniature.

Miss Andrus, Miss Howells and Miss Papaspiros comprised the decorating committee. Mrs. Howard Schaeffer and Mrs. Evas Lipp assisted in serving.

Mrs. C. Raymond Reich presided at the business session when Mrs. Clifford Todd was elected president; Mrs. Gale Dougherty, vice president and Mrs. Russell Andrus, re-elected secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Andrus gave the successful report for the year. June 2 there will be a skating party at Brookwood rink.

Presbyterians To Hold Parent-Youth Forum

Mary Mercer, Bob McArtor, Shirley Riler and Barbara Young are cast in the short play, "High Pressure Area," which will precede a parent-youth forum following a covered supper at 6 p. m. Sunday in the Presbyterian Church.

The supper meeting will be for members of the Junior and Senior High Westminster Fellowships and Presbyterians and parents of members of all three groups.

A quartet comprised of Barbara and Jean Cameron, Darrell Askey and Everett Crawford, who rated an unofficial unanimous award at the Federation of Music Club festival last week in Youngstown, will sing. The Presbyterians will arrange the tables.

CHILDREN'S HOUR PROGRAM

Children from six to 12 years of age are invited to the story-telling hour at 11 a. m. Saturday in the public library assembly room. Mrs. Howard Beilhart, children's librarian, will tell three stories, "The Princess and the Pea," "The Magician and the Horse" and "Pinky and the Witch."

Ohio 4-H Clubs To Mark 50th Anniversary

This year commemorates the golden anniversary of 4-H club work in Ohio, and its 50-year history shows interesting years of progress. There are now 84 clubs and this past year 32 won honor awards and more than 1,477 boys and girls were enrolled in 1,830 projects.

A. B. Graham of Clark County in 1902 organized a group of 85 boys and girls into an agricultural club. From 1902 until World War I the club program consisted mostly of contests in growing corn and other crops. Trips to Washington were given the winners.

In 1914, the Smith-Lever Law established the Agricultural Extension Service. During World War I, agricultural agents were placed in most counties. Club work then developed as an organized educational activity. Club work in Columbiana County began in 1918.

Extension work in the county began with the first county agricultural agent, E. G. Hibbs, in 1917. Corn and potato growing contests and calf and pig raising contests were held but the first boys and girls club was the Jersey Calf Club of 44 members in 1918.

With C. E. Rowland as county agricultural agent, seven poultry clubs were organized in 1921. In 1923 the first home economics clubs were organized, with 65 members in three poultry clubs; four pig clubs; a calf club and five canning clubs. There were one calf, two clothing, three canning and four pig clubs the next year.

Observance Set For Lutheran World Action

Members of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church and Emmanuel Lutheran Church will join with 10,000 other Lutheran congregations throughout the United States Sunday in observing Lutheran World Action in giving offerings for spiritual and material aid in this country and overseas.

Eight Lutheran bodies are participating in the program of the National Lutheran Council. They are United Lutheran Church in America, the Evangelical Lutheran Church, the American Lutheran Church, the Augustana Lutheran Church, the Lutheran Free Church, the Suomi Synod, the United Evangelical Church and the Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The Lutheran World Action goal for 1952 is $2,900,000. This will be used for spiritual service to Lutheran men and women in the armed forces; for orphaned mission stations cut off from the supporting churches because of war conditions; for the resettlement of displaced persons and refugees, and for the American Bible Society.

Thirty-two service centers are now maintained for personnel in the armed forces, and 32,000 displaced persons have been resettled in the United States.

Since 1940, more than $31,000,000 has been raised for the services of Lutheran World Action. There has been gathered 45 million tons of used clothing and shoes, food and medicines for the relief of war-torn nations and peoples.

The local churches, Holy Trinity and Emmanuel Lutheran, will gather used clothing and shoes in the month of May to be shipped to World Relief stations.

The Student Council at Junior High is sponsoring the program and mothers are asked to cooperate with children in giving them worn but clean garments or shoes for the bundles.

Elsie Gudat Becomes Bride Of Alfred R. Zeiglerski

Attired in ivory satin and lace with a full lace train, Miss Elsie Gudat became the bride of Alfred R. Zeiglerski of Cleveland on April 19 at the Faith Lutheran Church in Cleveland.

Miss Gudat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Gudat of Washington St., Washingtonville.

Rev. Armin Draeger officiated in the double-ring ceremony at an altar banked with ferns and palms accented by white gladioli and snapdragons on either side.

A prelude of organ music opening the ceremony was played by John Corina. He used "Beautiful Savior" as the processional. Daniel Deitrich sang the "Wedding Prayer" and the "Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown featuring long sleeves edged in lace. Her finger-tip illusion veil fell from a cap with pearl-like trim. Her arm bouquet was of white carnations with a white orchid in the center.

The bride chose her cousin, Miss Ruth Winkler, as maid of honor and Misses Marian and Dorothea Onigkeit as bridesmaids. Miss Winkler's dress was of aqua nylon net over satin and she carried baby blue orchids with yellow carnations. The bridesmaid's gowns were styled in pink nylon net over satin and they carried similar bouquets of orchids and carnations.

Mr. Kurt Gudat of Salem, brother of the bride, was Mr. Zeiglerski's best man. Ushers were John Tullius and Robert Merouyz of Cleveland.

The mother of the bride chose a navy frock and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Onigkeit, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, held a reception at their home. The newlyweds were greeted by 85 friends and relatives. A three-tiered colonial wedding cake decorated the refreshment table and a buffet supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeiglerski traveled to Michigan for their honeymoon, planning to visit in Detroit and Dearborn. They will make their home in Cleveland.

Washington Beats Cleveland, 2-1, On 13-Inning Single

Gil Coan Scores On Campos' Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Because of injuries, Cleveland Manager Al Lopez has been able to use the combination of Indians he picked at the start of the season in only six of 15 games.

And those games were the first six. Since that the Tribe has had one or more of the regulars sidelined by injuries at every game. The latest casualty was Dale Mitchell who hurt his left shoulder last night as the Tribe dropped a 2-1 heartbreaker to the Washington Senators.

Then there has been Jim Hegan, who has missed three games because of a sore elbow and now a sprained ankle; Larry Doby, who missed seven games due to a pulled leg muscle; and Bob Avila, sidelined briefly by a bruised leg.

Lesser aches and pains were Luke Easter's slight leg injury, George Stinewiss' tangle with pneumonia, Quincy Troupe's removed tonsils and Pete Reiser's strained shoulder.

The loss last night came on a double and a single after 13 innings and three hours and 10 minutes.

Gil Coan doubled to center and two batters later, Frank Campos drove him home with a single. That ended a pitching battle in which Cleveland's Bob Lemon gave up 10 hits and Washington's Sid Hudson allowed 12.

Lemon pitched a three-hit shut-out until the eighth when Washington tied the score on a single by Mickey Grasso and a double by Eddie Yost.

Mitchell accounted for the Tribe's only run in the first when he singled in Al Rosen who had singled and moved to second on a walk to Larry Doby. Outfielder Harry Simpson tripled twice, but was left there both times. Rosen hit three singles.

Then there has been Jim Hegan, who has missed three games because of a sore elbow and now a sprained ankle; Larry Doby, who missed seven games due to a pulled leg muscle; and Bob Avila, sidelined briefly by a bruised leg.

Ohio State To Hold Grid Coaches' Clinic

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio's High school grid coaches, generally considered the best in the scholastic business, get a chance next weekend to see how it's done in the big time.

Ohio State University's coaching staff, aided several outstanding visiting mentors, will offer its 21st annual football clinic Friday and Saturday, May 9 and 10. The climax is the clinic game, in which Coach Woody Hayes' Buckeye squad will put on a full scale contest at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

More than 500 of the Buckeye high school coaches are slated to attend, one of the big drawing cards being the fact Ohio State has adopted the split "T" as part of its 1952 offense.

3 Vet Pitchers Sparkle In Games

Trout, Dobson And Hudson Show Stuff

NEW YORK (AP) — Dizzy Trout, Joe Dobson and Sid Hudson, like old wine, seem to improve with age. The old gaffers are teaching the new dogs some old tricks.

Trout turned in a spectacular relief chore last night at Yankee Stadium to stifle a New York Yankee rally. Rescuing Art Houtteman in the ninth with men on first and third and nobody out, the 36-year-old Trout preserved a 5-4 Detroit victory.

Dobson, well past his 35th birthday, silenced the Philadelphia A's without a hit for 7 1/3 innings while pitching the Chicago White Sox to a 3-0 triumph.

HUDSON, Washington's 34-year-old veteran, edged Cleveland's Bob Lemon, 2-1, in an exciting 13-inning battle at Griffith Stadium.

The kids had their fun, too. Those rollicking St. Louis Browns, after breaking even with the world champs in New York, bowled over the Boston Red Sox rookies, 6-1. Thus did Rogers Hornsby's upstarts, cellar tenants in '51, move within one game of the first-place Red Sox.

The Chicago Cubs, somewhat more mature than the Brownies, continued to play like the spring sensations of the National as they bumped Brooklyn, 7-2. It took a trick of mathematics to keep the Cubs out of first place. Chicago, last in 1951, actually had a half game edge in the won-and-lost standings, but Brooklyn held a 13-point percentage edge, .727 to .714.

JIM HEARN pitched the New York Giants to a 13-5 romp over the Pittsburgh Pirates. That made his lifetime count 14-2 over the Bucs.

Robin Roberts, the Phillies' youthful ace, racked up win No. 3 with home run help from Nippy Jones and Connie Ryan as he downed St. Louis, 6-3, with an eight-hitter.

Cincinnati's Herm Wehmeier needed relief help from Frank Smith to put down a ninth-inning Boston uprising, saving a 7-6 edge for the Reds.

Getting back to Yankee Stadium where 21,127 turned out for the first night game of the season. Houtteman, a one-hit winner in his last out, suddenly lost his stuff in the ninth when three straight singles narrowed the gap to 5-4 with nobody out.

Trout strode in with Bob Cerv on third and a pinch-runner, Artie Wilson on first. Down went the Yanks, one-two-three.

VIC WERTZ was the big gun in the Tiger attack. Despite his sickly 191 he bashed successive two-run homers off Johnny Sain in the fourth and fifth innings to set up the Tiger triumph.

Dobson had a no-hitter going with one out in the eighth. Then rookie Skeeter Kell beat out a slow roller that shortstop Chico Carrasquel bobbled momentarily. The official scorer ruled it a hit on the theory that Kell would have beaten the throw to first.

Gil Coan's double and Frank Campos' single in the 13th broke up the duel between Hudson and Lemon at Griffith Stadium.

Duane Pillette threw a five-hitter against the Red Sox and contributed a two-run double in the fifth.

Big Hank Sauer of the Cubs put the skids under Dodger Ralph Branca with a three-run double in the first inning.

Rioting Blamed On Red Backing

Americans Among 1,800 Tokyo Injured

TOKYO (AP)—American spokesmen said Japan's bloody anti-American May Day riots bore the "well known trademark of ruthless Communism."

General Matthew B. Ridgway said the riots, in which at least 1,800 were injured and possibly seven killed, were "clearly of alien inspiration."

U. S. Ambassador Robert D. Murphy called the riots "more of the same" Russian policy of sparking violence which he had seen in European cities.

The newly arrived ambassador narrowly missed injury from flying rocks. He told his first press conference he was surprised by the ugly anti-foreign outbreak.

But, he said, "I felt a little bit at home as I watched. I detected a certain classic pattern and the same type of formations" as he saw in Communist-led European demonstrations.

The worst riot was between the imperial palace and Ridgway's headquarters as supreme U.N. commander in the Far East. Ridgway told a reception at the Imperial Hotel "such incidents x x x happen anywhere, anytime, when groups of people in the mass are misled and incited by fanatical, false leaders."

Both Ridgway and Murphy said the anti-American atmosphere of the riots would not alienate relations between Japan and the U.S.

Foreign Minister Katsuo Okazaki told the Ambassador Japan was sorry "American nationals and property were involved in the riots."

Police reported 1,026 of their men were injured in breaking up the biggest demonstrations—in front of the imperial palace in Tokyo and in the ancient capital of Kyoto. Others of the 1,800 injured were rioters or innocent bystanders.

A dozen American automobiles were overturned and burned. Americans were mauled and manhandled, but none seriously.

Steel Strike

court to strike down Pine's decision.

Acting Attorney General Philip Perlman said in a petition to the court that Judge Pine erred in deciding against the legality of the presidential seizure, and also in going into the constitutional questions involved.

Truman's move for a White House conference with both sides seemed obviously aimed at trying to get them to agree on a working contract. If this should develop, the Supreme Court might refuse to consider the case.

Asked if he attached any significance to the fact that Truman called the six steel company presidents to the meeting instead of the firm's industrial relations men, Murray said: "I think it is significant. They are the men who can make decisions."

Murray reiterated the union will stand firm on the Wage Stabilization Board's recommendations.

In the mill town of McKeesport near Pittsburgh, steelworkers took the news with grim indifference. Scores of men were queued up at the main gate of U.S. Steel's National Tube Works to receive their pay when word reached them that Murray had ordered them back to work.

There was no cheering and little display of emotion. "This is getting funny—on again—off again—on again," snorted one worker. "We're off two days, now we're back on."

"I suppose next week we can expect to be off again. Let's get the contract signed and get this thing settled."

Union aides predicted that striking mill workers would begin streaming back into the mills about 2 p.m. in preparation for the start of the regular 3 p.m. shift.

At the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. south side plant in Pittsburgh, steelworkers milled in confusion before the gates.

Some 2,000 men heard a blaring loud-speaker make the announcement of Murray calling off the strike.

Steelworkers gathered and stared hostilely at the towering smoke stacks but most of them were happy over the prospects of returning to work.

Students Hear Vocational Talks

Kindergarten Club To Hold Reception

COLUMBIANA — Three high schools were represented by 157 students in the fifth vocational guidance conference, sponsored by the Columbiana Rotary Club, in the Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon.

Columbiana High and Fairfield Centralized High were represented by seniors and freshmen to the number of 76 and 44, respectively, and New Waterford High by 37 seniors. Leetonia seniors had been invited, but were unable to be present.

Superintendent T. V. Utterback of Fairfield School, Rotary committee chairman, presided, and the speakers were Dr. Fred Essig, assistant superintendent of Youngstown schools; Miss Helen McWilliams, director of personnel training for Strouss-Hirshberg, Youngstown, and Robert L. Craig, assistant director of industrial relations for the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co.

DR. ESSIG spoke of the need of preparation for the chance that will come some day and said there are now 30,000 types of jobs open to the youth of America, an increase of 16,000 in the last few years. He emphasized the need of learning to get along with people and said teachers are the best counsellors in helping a student realize his capacity. High school records tend to indicate the plane of success or failure the student will occupy in later life, he said. Miss McWilliams said that in a large retailing business, only about 40 per cent of the jobs are in the selling department. Three important factors in seeking employment in merchandising, she said, are personality, courtesy and appropriate dress.

HOLLAND'S TOO SMALL FOR THEM.—The family of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Griffioen, 21 strong, arrives in New York from Utrecht, Holland, aboard the liner Nieuw Amsterdam. Jan (third from left), the 52-year-old head of the family, plans to take his brood to Abbotsford, British Columbia, where he has leased a 40-acre farm for cattle raising. He found available farming ground in Holland too small for his family. The children range in age from 22 years to one-year-old Josie, who is held in the arms of 44-year-old Mrs. Sandrina Griffioen, the mother.

MR. CRAIG gave a resume of the jobs in the Youngstown area, and said that of the 30,000 spoken of by Dr. Essig, about 12,000 are available in the Trumbull, Mahoning and Columbiana county areas in Ohio and Mercer County, Pa. Youths must be 18 years old and pass a physical examination for employment in the steel industry, he said.

Music by Columbiana High School students included a trumpet trio by Jean Groner, Donna Spanabel and Frank Boston; trombone solo, Joe Reeves; clarinet solo, Naomi Boston. The boys' chorus of Fairfield School sang five numbers under the direction of Robert Smith, the school music instructor.

Mothers of children who will be of kindergarten school age next fall are specially invited to an informal reception by the Kindergarten Mothers' Club in the home economics room of the High School building at 8 p.m. next Wednesday, May 7. Mrs. D. W. Bailey, teacher of the kindergarten department, will give a talk on what is expected of a kindergarten pupil. Refreshments will be served.

ABOUT 30 cars of steel reinforcement netting for the new highway under construction in Beaver County, Pa., have been transferred here in the last few weeks from the P.R.R. to the Y. & S. Railway for their destination at Darlington, Pa.

The W. S. C. S. will have its annual covered dish mother-daughter banquet in the dining room of the Methodist Church at 6 p.m. Thursday, May 8, in the church dining room. Members are to take covered dish and table service. Rolls, butter, coffee and cream will be provided.

WITH THE PASSING of each year, a great number of facts are added to man's increasing store of knowledge. Not over seventy-five years ago a man of superior intelligence could possess a working knowledge of all of science. Now, however, the realm of the known is so vast that it is necessary for men to specialize in order to master one small but deep corner of scientific knowledge.

Thus we have the physician, who diagnoses disease and prescribes medication and treatment. The pharmacist compounds and dispenses. Both the physician and the pharmacist benefit greatly from the researches of the biologist, the chemist, the physiologist, and the physicist, to name but a few. Through the teamwork of the allied sciences, increasingly better medical service for all is assured.

Here's News That Could Not Be Suppressed

Another Chapter In The Story Behind The Seizure Of The Steel Mills

(An Editorial From The New York Daily Mirror, April 26, 1952)

Politics, Not Government

Slowly it all comes out. That is something that the news suppressors in Washington do not seem to understand. In Russia, the news can be suppressed at the source, because they shoot those who do not conform to the dictates of the masters. Here, where the worst the President can do is to call a man a liar, the news will in time be available and published.

So, it happens that John C. Bane, Jr., industry member of the Wage Stabilization Board's special steel panel, appeared before the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare to tell of the irregular procedures in that board when the so-called "steel package" came up for action. Mr. Bane said:

"What I do know that would explain the strangeness of the board's extravagant wage recommendation is very little. As I have stated, a departure from the regulations was not suggested at any meeting of the panel or the board until late on the afternoon or evening of March 20th, at a meeting an hour or so before the board's recommendations were published. 'At that meeting, the public members who attended, operating as usual under the potent leadership of Mr. Feinsinger, presented one by one the recommendations which made up the 'package' published later that evening. Among them was the recommendation that wages be increased by the 12 1/2-cent to 17 1/2-cent series of steps. No industry member of the board or the panel had ever heard of this proposal until then. In spite of that, the wage recommendation, like all others in the case, was approved at once, without discussion, by the votes of the public and labor members of the board..."

Here is one of the most vital questions in our economy, a decision regarding which led to the seizure of the steel plants and the enunciation by the President of a doctrine of inherent powers—which is government by obiter dicta and not by law—and one hour's notice is all that is given for its consideration.

That is politics, not government. The decisions are not made by those who assume responsibility for them.

Actually, the Wage Stabilization Board is a packed agency. The labor and public members vote together against the industry members. The board is dominated by its chairman, Nathan P. Feinsinger, who has, since 1947, opposed the Taft-Hartley Law and is not likely to use its provisions if he can help using them. Mr. Bane's statement repeats the question: "WHY DID THE BOARD DEPART FROM ITS REGULATIONS?"

Obviously, Mr. Feinsinger does not find it necessary to abide by regulations or even to report to his own board. Mr. Bane concluded:

"... It now means that the board has no particular standards or limits in the establishment of wages. Its only standard is to be its own more or less discreet pleasure. What a union gets, in short, under this precedent, may depend on its peculiar standing in the favor or disfavor of the board, and perhaps the amount of political and social pressure it can exert on the public members of the board. To an American lawyer, government of this kind is abhorrent; it is government by men, not by law."

Naturally, when a president rules without law, his subordinates will imitate him. Now every little bureaucrat will make his own rules and change them at will. The law is being subordinated not only to the whim of the President, but to the wishes of little board chairmen.

Maybe Congress needs to investigate whether Congress itself has anything to do with the laws of this country.

It Is Your Fight

If you are opposed to the un-American-like methods, as described by the Mirror, which led to the seizure of the steel mills, you are anxious to have the whole story brought out into the open. The House of Representatives voted 255 to 88 last Thursday to bring this about through an investigation of the Wage Stabilization Board by its Labor Committee.

It is your privilege as an American citizen to advise your representatives in Congress of your interest in and support of this investigation which begins in Washington May 6.

Write for copies of Mr. Bane's testimony and the booklet "Facts in the Steel Controversy."

Grows Hybrids Handily

Raising Of Plants Relaxes, Inspires Expert On Pumps

By PEARL WALKER

Plants and pumps have one thing in common—and that's water. But it is uncommon for a man to be both a pump and plant expert.

Henry Jennings of Georgetown Rd. foreman of the pump and repair department at the Deming plant says "My middle name is pumps," but his hobby is growing and hybridizing plants—both flowers and vegetables. And his philosophy of life is "that any job worth doing is worth doing well." Mr. Jennings finds inspiration and relaxation in growing plants.

Name any type of flower and you can guess that he has it. Among the 1,000 bulbs which he has set out are crocus, tulips, hyacinths, daffodils and four varieties of narcissus. His solid yellow miniature narcissus bulbs came from Holland.

IN THE LILY FAMILY ARE the Regal, Gold Band and Red Russian. His English daisies bloom almost the year around, Mr. Jennings said. They are a small, full flower which came from the country whose name they bear because they grow best there. These daisies are pure white, deep rose and variegated rose and white.

Adding a riot of color to his garden, are 12 varieties of delphiniums, four different colors of lupine, 25 varieties of hardy chrysanthemums, 400 gladioli (hybrid stock) and around 200 hybrid tea roses. His own hybrid rhododendron is now in bud and he is anxiously waiting to see the color of its blossom.

This year Mr. Jennings is planning to "bud" roses. For this he will take a wild rose root and graft into it a cutting of any hybrid rose. He likes to cross-breed and pollinate any flower. And that goes for vegetables, too. This summer he also expects to have three different cross-breeds in his nonacid tomato.

THE PLANT EXPERT SAYS that he was one of the first in this community to grow Mexican sweet corn, which is very productive, gray blue when ready to eat, and exceptionally sweet.

Among his unusual house plants is a cigar plant, so called because its deep orange-colored blossom is shaped like a cigar. The end of it is gray and looks like ashes falling off. He also has giant and dwarf sansevieria and African violets.

Most of the evergreens on his lawn were grown from ones used for Christmas trees, set out right after New Year's Day.

The Jennings home is just 1,000 feet from the city limits and Mr. Jennings has a little more than three acres under cultivation. A woods to the southwest of his garden makes an attractive background.

PEOPLE HAVE ASKED Mr. Jennings if he had a "green thumb" because of his success in growing plants. He doesn't believe in "signs" which many people followed in planting. But he does make it a rule to have his garden plowed the week before Memorial Day and plants his vegetables then.

The Jennings have 10 children, five sons and five daughters. A native of St. Louis, Mo., he

Nominate The FIGHTING PARSON
For Congress

Long before our party took a forthright stand against racketeering and political corruption Dr. Norman E. Nygaard helped to break the power of one of the most deeply entrenched gangs in America.

Now that our party is asking to be returned to power in Washington to clean up the corruption in government, Republican voters of the 18th Congressional District have the opportunity to nominate a candidate for Congress who will hold high the torch of honesty.

Dr. Nygaard is no novice. He worked his way through college and theological seminary, earned four academic degrees and was awarded two honorary doctorates. It is not often that the people of the 18th District have the opportunity to select a congressman with such an outstanding educational background.

Dr. Nygaard served overseas in two wars. During World War I he served in the army in Europe. In World War II he served as a chaplain in North Ireland.

Norman E. Nygaard, D.D.,
Litt. D.

If any politician thinks a Republican victory simply means an opportunity to transfer corruption from one party to another and expects to feast at the gravy train he had better not vote for NYGAARD.

The election this year is one of the most important in the history of America. If the people select our party to take the reins of government it is most important that we send to Congress men who know what it's all about. This is no time for our party to entrust the welfare of our country and our party to ordinary politicians.

We should nominate Dr. Nygaard whose knowledge of government and whose ability as a public speaker will out-match anything the opposition party can bring forth.

Road Test of The AERO-WILLYS

It combines the best qualities of U. S. and Foreign cars

By Griff Borgeson

Cars are Better than ever, to rework a Hollywood slogan. As with wines, there are vintage periods in automotive production and it can be safely said that such a period has dawned for American cars—for the first time in a great many years!

The Aero Willys is the latest confirmation of this optimistic viewpoint. It's a car which is absolutely certain to shake the industry to its very foundations. Remember, this isn't an advertisement you're reading—our job is to give you accurate information as we see and record it. The new Willys is a completely sensational machine and all you have to do is drive one to prove that statement to yourself.

Long Time No Willys

A lot of people have wondered if the Willys-Overland company would ever go back to passenger car production. After all, the makers of "the world's most useful vehicles" seemed to have their hands full meeting military contracts and supplying the ever-growing home and export demand for the most functional car of all time, the Jeep. But when Willys did make the decision to re-enter the passenger car field, Jeep-type thinking ruled them: every inch of the car must be carefully, functionally engineered. American and European body designers, aeronautical and automotive engineers collaborated to produce one of the sanest, soundest, cleverest vehicles that this country has seen in decades. There are countless tributes to be paid the new Willys; one of them is to say that it's the Jeep of passenger cars.

Prove It Yourself

If all this sounds unduly rhapsodic and too much like a paid commercial, we repeat: get out there and drive a Willys for yourself. This is the car; the wheelbase is short, the treat is wide, and cornering ability is as good as that of most foreign sports cars! Both front and rear seats are as wide as those of most of the biggest autos and wider than most of the competition. Luggage space is actually more than the average car-buyer will need. Rider and driver comfort is hard to beat.

Acceleration is remarkable—better than that of certain famous winners of stock car races. The engine is almost unbeatable for efficiency, producing .56 bhp for each cubic inch of its size! Fuel consumption is comparable to that of the European flyweights but the car is not a little car. Top speed—clocked at 84.11 mph by the MOTOR TREND Research staff—is as good as that achieved by the other cars in this class. And all this comes from an engine of 161 cu. in.—2.64 liters—which revs fast and high but has the healthy piston speed of a mere 2566 fpm at 4400 rpm.

Body And Interior

The Aero Willys body appealed to us as having attractive lines, but the most amazing thing about this body, in our opinion, is its very evident aerodynamic correctness. An obvious demonstration of this was experienced when we were storming along at 60 or 70 mph with the driver's window open. In most autos, this produces a terrific turbulence within the passenger compartment. The driver's left ear is buffeted, the roar drowns out all other sound, and prolonged cruising under these conditions causes considerable fatigue. Incredibly enough, it's NOT this way in the Willys; it makes no practical difference whether the window is open or closed at these speeds. There's no noticeable increase in sound, no fatigue, no draft—just gentle ventilation. To us, this implies good, careful engineering.

On dusty roads, the car's minimum wind drag was indicated by the unusually small disturbance of dust. Instead of the usual billowing cloud, there were just two swirls—from the tires and from the trailing edges of the rear fenders. Naturally, this is a big factor in the Willys' fuel economy at high speeds.

The roominess of this "small" car is difficult to get used to. You feel that it has no right to be there—yet six passengers can relax in solid, spacious comfort. Upholstery is neat and attractive; so is the instrument panel. MT Research was impressed by the excellent positioning of the steering wheel, which gives the driver powerful leverage and effortless control. The steering gear ratio is slow compared to any sports car but, in spite of this, the Willys is responsive in your hands.

The window area is immense and the seating position is—despite the car's lowness—high. Visibility is consequently of the best, even for the rear seat passengers who, for a change, have a good view of the road ahead. The driver's view includes FOUR fenders and the sloping hood lets him see the ground 10 short feet ahead. The Willys rides like any good American car—softly, gently, never bottoming its springs. The passengers are cradled gently between the axles and enjoy top comfort as a result.

The doors close with the gentlest pressure and the 8000-plus welds in the unit-constructed body promise continued absence of body noises. Although underseal is not standard, careful design has kept road noise to a minimum; there is no irritating "slap" of tires on pour joints in concrete pavement. "3-M" underseal or its equivalent would do this car good—as it does any car.

The things we didn't like were few and some are mentioned at the end of this report. The others are: the squab (back of the front seat) fold forward to permit use of the rear seat. This unsafe feature (fly-swatter effect when you hit something hard) is typical of two-door cars having a back seat. Too, we found that the front arm-rests tapered the wrong way, failing to give good elbow support. Finally, leg room for the rear-seat passengers is too limited when the front seat is adjusted to "fullretard" position.

"A Universal Automotive"

Wherever we took the Aero we were struck by its perfect adaptability to the conditions. The car is ideal in traffic—small enough to maneuver like an acrobat, possessed of enough accelerating power to make the maneuvering agile in every way. On the straightaway the car remained docile and stable right up to top speed and was barely bothered by powerful crosswinds.

But in the mountains the fun really begins. There's a 30-mile stretch on our test course that consists of climbing, twisting mountain road. Woron, Bodley, and I were continually amazed by the Willys' astonishing, cornering characteristics. Our confidence in the car grew with every turn we put it through: no matter how hard we threw it into turns, it would not break loose either fore or aft. Only on dirt or on sandy pavement did this happen at all, and then the car showed no tendency to rotate, but only to go into a short, safe controlled slide. Sports car behavior certainly puts the fun back in driving and Woron commented, "This is the best-handling American stock car I've ever driven."

The brakes of our test car were subjected to a very destructive beating but fade was never a factor. Unexpected as it is in a modern mass-produced car, the Willys' fine brake drums have deep cooling fins which make a sizeable contribution to brake reliability.

High Efficiency, Low Price

Highly efficient engines, when they can be found at all, are almost without exception to be found among the most costly cars. The general engine layout of the Willys is very similar to the modern Rolls-Royce. Using the economical, L-head, six-cylinder engine as a spring-board, Willys has created an F-head power plant with extremely straight-through porting, which makes for good breathing and fine torque. The torque curve (and hence the acceleration) stays a good way up in the rpm range. The F-head engine—overhead intake valves; L-head, block-contained exhaust valves—allows the use of oversize valves and ports and a spark-plug position close to the center of the combustion chamber, providing an even flame travel. This design accounts for the Aero engine's ability to combine a 7.6:1 compression ratio with "regular" fuel for smooth performance and fuel economy.

Marvelous MPG

The first fuel check we made (all were made with Mobilgas "regular") was in traffic and worked out to 25.3 mpg! The traffic was fairly light and we were in overdrive, but such excellent mileage came as a shock. Under the most brutal conditions of creeping through dense traffic and hitting most of the signals wrong, the lowest fuel consumption figure recorded for the Aero Willys was an even 15 mpg. The best mileage on the open highway was 33.0 mpg, at a steady 30 mph.

Perfection? Not Yet...

Our test car was one of the first to leave the line of the Willys' West Coast assembly plant and we noticed definite room for improvement in many parts of the machine. The clutch dragged, even with the pedal depressed for 20 seconds, causing the transmission gears to rotate and clash when shifting from neutral to non-synchro low or reverse. This could be avoided by dropping into high and THEN flipping the lever to low or reverse. Too, the shifting linkage was unnecessarily stiff. Both the glove compartment and the masking around the bottom of the front seat were cheaply, hastily executed and were out of keeping with the overall high quality of engineering that marks the machine. Finally, definite defects were noted in the fit of several body panels.

When we returned the Aero to the factory we reported these things to the Service Manager. Not only did he agree with every criticism—he showed us directives from the home factory calling for correction of all the faults we had found.

The Future

It's unfortunate that we cannot prepare a Cost Per Mile Comparison for the Aero Willys, due to lack of maintenance and depreciation data. Obviously, from what we've said, it will be one of the most economical cars to operate of ANY available in the world today. An assumed low depreciation rate is a large contributing factor to this argument.

The new Willys is one of the most outstanding cars of the post-war period and success in America should do a lot for Willys stockholders. But something else which intrigues us is, what will its success be in the export field?

American cars are esteemed the world over for their roominess, comfortable suspension, reasonably luxurious interiors, and for their power. European cars are prized for their economy and for their usually superior handling qualities. Willys seems to us of MOTOR TREND RESEARCH to have blended all the best qualities of both schools of engineering and style. It's as ideal for the overseas market as it is for us at home—it's the post-war era's top contender for the title of Universal Car.
